I have just been favored with your letter of the 25th of last month together with the seeds of the Indigo tree: Indigo, and if it is not what (in the Botanic Garden) is called broad leaved Sumatra Indigo, it must be unknown to me, you will therefore oblige me much, if you can send me a small specimen of the plant in flower, put up between the folds of blotting paper, together with one or two of the capsules, or ripe seed vessels entire, I shall then be able to determine what it is, & whether known or not

Minute of the Governor General

Fort William, June 1st, 1805.

Upon the first improvement of the grounds at Bar-rachpore, it was in the contemplation of the Governor General to combine, with the arrangements then adopted at his recommendation, the establishment of an institution - calculated to effect the gradual improvement of the agriculture of India, and to ameliorate the general condition of our native subjects in these extensive and populous provinces.

To a cursory observer, the extensive and highly-cultivated plains which are to be seen in every part of Bengal suggest an opinion of almost abundance every where prevails, and that nothing remains to be accomplished to assist the fertility of the soil, or to augment the comforts of the people. On a more accurate investigation, however, it will be found, that the great mass of the people who are employed in agriculture (and especially the day-labourers) are in a state of comparative indigence.

„ ^ ^ JLeV s/s/sit s/s subjects must in some measure be ascribed to the improvement

improvident policy ^{iff /flu^} landholders, in generally renting their lands on short ^{1st} highest rent which can be obtained, and to the long-established practice amongst the Hindoo of every description, of lavishing all the wealth which they can amass in expensive religious ceremonies, at the marriages of their children, and for the maintenance and support of religious mendicants, and other idle retainers. It is, however, an unquestionable fact, that the produce of the soil is infinitely below what it is capable of yielding under proper management, and that the resources and comforts of the people might be much improved, if they were instructed in the best means of converting its natural fertility to the utmost advantage. p

Under the present system of Indian agriculture, with the advantage of a soil of uncommon fertility, and of a climate which yields a crop of some description at every season, the industry of a single ploughman, however exerted, is insufficient to enable him to cultivate a greater extent of land within the year than seven acres; and the expense of separating the rice from the husk for culinary purposes, after the grain is reaped, & cannot be estimated at a sum inferior to one-fifth part of the value of the grain; whilst a similar operation can be performed in England, and in other European countries, at an expense not exceeding one fortieth part of the value of the crop. —

Similar defects pervade every branch of Indian agriculture, and in no instances are their injuries & consequences more manifestly exemplified, than in the general state of the cattle employed in the labor of the fields within these provinces. — A breed of strong and powerful black cattle is found in very few situations, good pasture throughout the year, but the weak and inefficient condition of the cattle generally employed for agricultural and other purposes, as well in Bengal as in the upper provinces, cannot have escaped the notice of the most inattentive observer. —

The advantages which would accrue from an improvement of the breed of cattle are great and important, but this desirable object can only be accomplished by the introduction of a more perfect system of husbandry, where the skilful application of art shall be employed to provide suitable nourishment for the cattle, at those seasons when the pasturage is almost universally destroyed by the parching heat of the sun. —

The permanent settlement of the revenues in the lower provinces, by insuring to the landholders the enjoyment of all the advantages which may arise from the improvement improvement of his property, has contributed essentially to the encouragement ^{6f ft^W^wxiiii} under the present defective system of hus-ry, however, the large proportion which the rent payable to the state bears to the value of the produce of the soil, ^{<rfLtsi-asUs} in a certain degree as a ~~hindrance to the employment of the capital of the landholder~~ in the improvement of his property, and this obstacle is only to be removed by the ^{-ms&L?*Ce4>f} ~~introduction~~ ^{</Lsps} calculated at the same time to augment the produce of ^{/fits A ? i ^ . O^TL^} to diminish the expense of preparing the grain for consumption.

In ^{pifas <dt*} ~~the~~ ^{view} of intelligent European re-gentlemen conversant ^{j&t> ffit J} subject, the ^{^sf/£\} ~~property~~ landholder might be augmented ^{tsyIS} a considerable proportion by the introduction of many simple improvements in the implements of agriculture, and in machinery, now in general use throughout Europe; by these means, the property of a large proportion of our native subjects would be increased and gradually the comforts of affluence would be more generally diffused through the mass of the people.

Independently of the moral duty imposed on the British government to provide, by every means in its power, for the improvement of the condition of its subjects substantial substantial advantages must necessarily be derived by the state from the increased wealth and prosperity of the people. The consumption of all articles of comfort and of luxury would increase with augmented wealth, and the government would be enriched by the additional produce of the taxes on those articles, without imposing any burden on the people. —

Adverting to the genius and habits of the natives of India, it cannot be expected that any attempts will ever be made by them to improve the system of agriculture practised for ages by their ancestors, unless the personal advantages to be derived from such improvements, as shall be found to succeed in practice, shall be clearly manifested to them. —

Under these considerations, the governor general is satisfied, that the establishment of an experimental farm, under proper regulations, in Bengal, would be an object of great public utility; and he is persuaded that the expense of such an institution would not prove considerable. The object of the establishment ought to be, as already stated, the improvement of the breed of black cattle; the introduction of a better system of agriculture than the system now in general use in these territories.

territories; and reduction of the expense of preparing the grain for consumption, by the use of machinery, or by other means. —

The quantity of land required for the proposed farm would not exceed three hundred acres, or nine hundred begas, and the establishment could not be founded in any situation so desirable, on many considerations, as at Barrackpore; and at that place manure might be obtained at little expense, and the greater ^{the} funds at Barrackpore might be employed as pasture ground for the cattle. —

The business of the farm would thus be conducted under the occasional inspection of the governor-general, whose influence might be employed with great advantage to explain the benefits of the plan to the natives of rank and property, and to induce them to introduce on their own estates such improvements as might be found to be useful at Barrackpore. —

To superintend the proposed farm with advantage, the assistance of an European overseer, of experienced knowledge in the practice and theory of agriculture, and of an engineer European mechanic and civil engineer, would be absolutely and indispensably necessary. These persons ought also to be men of some education

education, capable of applying the general knowledge they hall have required to the circumstances of a country differing so materially from England in soil, in climate, and in its natural productions, and of explaining, in clear and intelligible language, to be translated for the use of the natives, the principles on which their system of management may be founded, and the prospect of ultimate success. —

It would likewise become a duty of the superintendent or overseer to correspond on agricultural subjects with intelligent European gentlemen, residing in every part of India, by which means, a knowledge of the practice of agriculture, in its various branches, as established with success in any one province, might be disseminated and tried by actual experiment throughout the British possessions. — In this manner the drill husbandry now practised with advantage in the centre of the Deccan might be extended to many parts of Bengal; means might be devised to instruct the inhabitants in the preservation of hay, for the use of the cattle, at the season when little or no herb is to be found, and many other useful improvements might be introduced. —

Amongst these it has been suggested, that the cultivation of the turnep might be introduced with considerable considerable advantage, for the purpose of feeding cattle at that season of the year, when the deficiency of the articles favoured for cattle, now in common use, is most severely felt.

When a sufficient number of intelligent and industrious natives shall have been instructed in the approved system of agriculture to be introduced at the experimental farm at Barrackpore, they may be dispersed throughout the country, for the purpose of disseminating a knowledge of its advantages; and other establishments may be formed in the districts, as circumstances shall indicate the propriety of the measure on principles corresponding with those of the proposed establishment at Barrackpore.

It is proposed that some intelligent European, capable of conducting the business of an experimental farm on these principles, might be found in India; but it appears to the Governor General to be proper that the establishment of the farm upon any extended scale should be postponed, until the sanction of the Honourable the Court Directors to the measure can be obtained, who may possess the means of considering this important subject, in concert with those distinguished personages in England, whose recent labours and example have contributed so largely to augment the agricultural resources

resources of Great Britain. The question is highly deserving of the mature deliberation and attention of the Honble Court, nor can any subject be presented to their notice so more worthy of engaging the exertion of that spirit of liberal patronage, which ^{//f,^ C+^S-S' t_y?L*&+^ "faff^} the Company has so always manifested towards every plan of improvement calculated to ameliorate the condition of the natives of these possessions. —

Secretary to the Marine Board

Sir

I have the pleasure to send you two bundles of Gornuts tope yarn, the produce of the Botanical Garden, which I request you will submit to the inspection of the Marine Board. The trees which yielded this Gornuts were brought hither from Achern about 7 years ago, by Lieut.
Col^l Alexander Tych, at the recommendation of the late Colonel Robert Knox. The tree is a species of Palm called by the Malays, Knon, and Nam, by the Portuguese Saguain, and by the Dutch Saguain Room, being little known to the European Botanists it has not as yet found a place in the Linnæan system. The substance produced by it, of which the tope yarn is made is a fibry mass exactly resembling horse hair, which grows from, and envelops the stem, and the spaces between the branches. This substance is called by the Malays Goo Pance, and more commonly Gornuts. The Dutch sailors have given it the name

name of Lap it is said to be not ^{-*^t} the toughest and strongest, but also the most durable and incorruptible of any known vegetable ^{dsr^e-sL^} stem. It is neither spoiled by long continued immersions in fresh water, nor in salt, and it has been found to last for many years buried under ground without rotting or decaying.
On account of these valuable qualities it is used by the natives to the Eastward for a great variety of purposes. - The most important of which is that of ropes and cables for ships. - It is employed for ^{?%~>} purpose not only by the ^{jp s s} ~~Chinese~~ but also by the Spaniards and Dutch, who reckon it far superior to the best Europe Hemp or Cordage. The Spaniards set such a value on it that in some of the ^{&LjC<L} ^{*b} ~~Islands~~ the inhabitants pay their land to government in gonats and the Dutch have a large ware house on the Island of Ternate constantly ^{•'i<} ^{i^r} ~~filled~~ with minute cables for the supply of the ^{, y->} ^A ~~and~~ Merchant ships. - Supposing these accounts to be well founded, and see no reason to doubt the truth of them, it seems surprising that an article so valuable to a maritime nation

Should

should have been so much neglected by the English. For I have never heard of Gromite Cables being used in our Country Ships, or of the substance itself being imported to any of our settlements as an article of Commerce nor, excepting the instances above mentioned, do I know of any attempts having been made to introduce the tree which produces it to Hindoostan. Quoyphus who wrote above a hundred years ago gives a full account of the valuable qualities of the Gromite and particularly of its excellence for the purpose of making cables and yet Maomed in his history of Sumatra, tho' he takes notice of the durable quality of the Grom or Gromite, and mentions its being used on that account by the natives for covering their houses, and for wrapping round boats when fixed in the ground to prevent their decaying, says nothing of its being ever used either by the Malays or the English for ship cables. And this neglect of the Gromite be owing to the scarcity and rarity of the substance in consequence of the jealousy and Caution of the Dutch to keep it among themselves, or whether our sea-faring men have found out some defect in the Gornite Cables, which induced them to prefer those made of Coir of Europe. Some are points which I cannot determine, but which the Marine Board will easily be able to ascertain.

Should the former of these suppositions be the case, it is with great satisfaction that I can inform the Board of our having now a fair prospect of soon being able to supply ourselves with this article.
The eight Sagueen trees brought hither by Colonel Ryder, are at present in a flourishing condition, and from their rapid growth the Soil and Climate of Bengal seem to agree particularly well with the Species of Cotton. One of the trees has already produced seed, and there is no doubt well soon bear. We have also in the garden thirty five young trees brought lately by Mr. Smith from Amboyna which are in a thriving state. There is therefore no doubt that we are now in complete possession of the Gornite tree, and that the cultivation of it may be carried on to any extent.
Whatever may be the value of this acquisition the public is indebted to the late worthy in-
*U*U*

Colonel

Colonel Robert Boyd. - Have only to add that besides the substance for WJF^4. SgSur > i?jt^*. tree yields from its branches a fermentable liquor superior to the toddy of the date and Palmira, fresh and when cut down, its trunk affords a sago equal to that of the Sagu boom, or true Sagu tree, but its value in these respects is foreign to the subject of this letter.

Remark. - Some twelve or fourteen years after the above letter was written the art of Tanning Cork was introduced, which in many places is considered to be a most useful article superior to Europe Hempen Hops, and at about one half of the Cost. It is also 1/5 lighter.

Extract from a Letter written in 1807 by Mr. D. King of Calcutta, to Admiral Boscawen

On the west coast there is a Strong fibre grows on a species of Palm tree the Eye which for durability and strength exceeds any thing I have ever met, I have seen it tried on all ways: it is used for making as Standing and Running Rigging, Car- and Madder Pendants, and other under water, or exposed to the weather I have found it does any thing on the Rope way I have before met with ^{— * ^ } a substance something like horse hair, procured from the leaves of a Species of Sage Palm tree and is acknowledged by every Person who has had any experience of it to be a valuable substance for the purposes of manufacturing into rope from its great durability and strength. It is procured among all the Eastern Islands but abounds in greatest quantity in the Molucces. The Malays use it in their boats for every purpose, and in the way they prepare it for their own use it is like salt rope in fire

Dr. Fleming says
it envelopes the stem, and the space between the branches

fineness - The government imported a quantity in 1812 from Bombay, and had it made up for the Pilot Schooners some of which were completely fitted out with it. The report from the Pilots corroborates its character with respect to durability but they were of opinion that as cables it did not come upon the Coir, as it generally snapped at the clutch, nor did they like it as Manning's rigging on account of its being disagre-able to handle from the small junk running into their hands like needles. They liked it as Manning's rigging but gave the preference to Coir for other purposes it must be observed however, that a part was imported loose which the people here not understanding, spun as it was, into the coarse yarn, and the yarn even brought here was not equal in fineness to what the Malays prepare for their own use I am informed by a gentleman who experimented twice at Bombay, in the presence of ^{^iU*rw^} Rennie that an 8000 fms of 7 inches broke one of European ^{^r^} the same dimensions, and afterwards bore a strain that that stretched it several feet more. From my own experience of what was brought and made up here of ~~it~~ inferior in strength to Europe or Low Rope and that on a very dry day it used to snap suddenly & which we used to prevent much by wetting it. We gave it four trials in hauling up timbers and found it just out the Europe and Low Rope on heavy work and they in their turn to break it to pieces in a few minutes -

My dear friend, I have been all truly concerned to receive such accounts of the health of our friend Mr. Lacey. Some time ago his son wrote me, that he was much better, ^{than} ~~was~~ and perfectly out of danger. I however trust, from what you say, that his disorder has taken a favorable turn, & as the change of the moon is just over, that he will get stout by the full moon, I have just sent off a man with a note to his son, to enquire how he is.

in Council approves of your availing yourself of the services of Dr. W. Wallich, in the Botanical Garden should he be willing to give his attendance on the same allowances which he at present receives at Serampore, but that Government cannot grant Dr. Wallich any additional salary while he may be employed that have been found a good substitute for Meloe vesicatorius, to raise blisters with.

 I send you some of them with this when you have time, let me know what you think it is. They have suffered much by the carriage from Muttra, & from the rain.

When you have nothing to

The insects belong beyond all doubt to Lytta - genus to which Tabonus has transferred the Meloe vesicatorius Linn. The spec. in question is a new one as far as it is not described in Fabricius Sp. entomol. new. D. - I have been favoured with smaller spec. of Lytta found near Perdangone by one of my friends, very large & fine, but that you had from Dr Fleming; it differs however being pubescent, pedicel proreus. I shall by this in correspondence in this affair.

I have since had an answer to try the insect powder & mixt up with a mild acetic acid and had the fishes packed to arrive that it within the short space between from 12 o'clock noon to 7 evening had raised a very large & fine bladder

Dear George, see 12 bits

The information which I have from the present being sure of the Garden Moss have been able to obtain respecting the plant

There have been two very fine trees in the garden which died soon after the entering the town was old years ago. They never blossomed but from her depression and her stating: that the gentleman who she occupied the house previously to her had got them from the bot. Garden Trunkle that they were nearly the Myrtus Pimenta.

The Phacelia would not show in flower, the flowering season is in the beginning of the snow.

My Dear Sir

I acknowledge the receipt of your kind Letter of the 31st Ult^o, and am very happy to hear, that the Reverend Mr. Brown is in a fair state of recovery.

I have not yet been so fortunate as to obtain a passage to Java, ^{str} therefore I beg you will be so kind and inform that worthy Gentleman, that we will have time to prepare such papers as we should wish to send to Batavia, and should I get an opportunity to go, I shall not look forward on improving Mr. B. of it.

I beg you will assure Mr. B. that I shall at all times be very happy if I can give him any information upon the Subjects he desires.

But I hope Mr. B. will consider, that as I had been 30 years absent from Batavia, when I arrived there in 1818, and that I am only stay them for the short period of 3 Months, that I can not expect, by want of local knowledge, that I will be able to give a satisfactory information upon the Subject Mr B. will require, but I shall endeavour to answer from Batavia all Questions Mr B. will please to make to keep a Correspondence with a Gentleman so highly esteemed by me will be an agreeable recreation, provided as the Case is founded upon public good, and benefit to Mankind.

Permit me that I offer, with than some Anxiety, your such favour, as I in my present Situation am able to render

I regret that I have not been sooner acquainted with you, and other respectable Gentlemen of Serampore, but that I must attribute to my constant indisposition which prevented me till late to see my Parents at Serampore, and China^{ixs}, but being now acquainted with you, I shall be always happy to cultivate it, there fore I should

Should you, or any of them suppose that I could be a source of joy you will then comfort me.

I hope you will enjoy the blessing of health, Happiness & prosperity, and I you will remember me kindly, to Mr. Keating, and Mr. Rice; and that I always will remain

My Dear Sir!

Yours most affectionately

Dear Doctor Wallcut,

I should be glad to see you in the east of the country, as I have some expectations of the new treatment, & have also a pain in my back which makes me walk crooked, & occasional pains on both sides. I suppose I have caught cold; but it is hard to begin in time.

My dear Doctor,

I am again rather afflicted with Bile: at least I suspect so from my feelings; & I suppose a little more opening medicine would do me good. I have a great aversion to Calomel, though if necessary I will take that, or any thing else; but I don't like to take to take some Colicid salts & Peppermint, or a good dose of Cream of Tartar & Magnesia; or any thing else that would not keep me idle. I suspect, that while the present fits weathers better, I shall be un-pelled ^{freely} to take ^{•S*} nothing to assist in carrying off the bile, which ^{..S.} results in consequence of the digestive powers being weak, & the want of a cool air to assist the progress of Digestion.

I am sure you will smile at this recovered note, but be so kind as to send me something that will take away my languor, indigestion,

My dear Doctor,

I finished my stool yesterday. I cannot say that I feel better, though the experiment has not yet been thoroughly made.

I feel today my appetite gone; when rising in my throat, & an indigestion now & then to vomit, & a great degree of languor.

After taking one dinner twice a day, now that ^{can} be held. I do not consider any of these symptoms as indicating any thing serious; perhaps they may all be accounted for by the state of the at atmosphere & the weakness of my digestive powers, which require to be managed a little.

At present I suppose a dose of opening medicine is necessary, & that this will place me on my legs again for a month & so on & so on till the old weather comes.
I am ashamed of all these complaints & grouching, while I remain well enough
to go about my business;
but, — a child in time never mine, & nobody likes to drag his body along, & feel his eye ache when he goes up stairs, if passing

off a little bitter stuff called bile, will enable him to walk about briskly S X enjoying a pleasant flow of spirits.

Dear son,

I have received your letter of the 4th Instant and dont loose a moment in giving you every information in my power on the subject you request. Last February I started from this place and went to Daliah where the Rajah resides, and had an interview with him, and he granted me a Patent to fell as many Sand, Lissos, and any other Timbers that I might take a fancy to, at four Rupees per Cargo, from Daliah I went straight to Poggah which is the good English name of Poggah three days land there afterwards that all the Forests, or Jungles, to the North East of Poggah, are called by the Natives, of that Country the Samrah and Mungahpore Sand Forests, and that they belong to the Rannagah or Subyne Rajah, who I understand is a tributary Prince to the Affaul Rajah and Daliah, and paid on all timbers brought out of the Sand Jungle, to the Subyne Rajah. These Forests are about 12 Miles North East of Poggah, from Poggah I started * for Forbearah which is J& English Miles and on the same side of the Gungah as Poggah. But the natives call it the Narayon. Now here I encamp'd and set two falling Timbers in the Rannagah

#. . ^k

J&

Saul Tombs, which it is called by the Natives of that country. During my stay at Fortyness I made several Roads in the Rappahannock Bay from light to ten miles in length, and in different directions, and never met with any interruption from any persons when doing so.
During my stay at Fortyness, I went several times to Pocomuchonock Ghaut, both by land and water, which is on a very high Rock and about 6 Miles from Fortyness, and on the same Side of the River at this place I found several Thousand Saul Tombs belonging to different Native Merchants and some belonging to a Mr. Wolkison, who lives in the King's River District but fell by a Frenchman who goes by the name of Lyons but his real name is Chellett.

The Native Merchants were very busy going and fetching their Goods and dispatching my then from Pocomuchonock Ghaut. On the Rappahannock people received the duties thereon, from Pocomuchonock Ghaut I went to another Ghaut called by the Natives Koonamuck where I found many hundred Saul Tombs belonging to Native Merchants who were also making Rafts and dispatching them, and paid the duties thereon to the Native Rajah people. This Ghaut is 6 miles from Pocomuchonock, and on the same side of the Nariney river, from that place I went to another called Katanu ghaut where I also found a good many Sand Timbers, belonging to Native Merchants, who told me that they paid the duties to the British Rajahs. The last mentioned ghaut is about 5 Miles from Kona mahal and on the same side of the Nariney river I made enquiries from the Merchants how far they had to bring these Timbers out of the Forest, some told me six days, others seven, I light and it took them three days in bringing one load to the different ghauts they also told me that the Nijpaul Territories were very near to these places where they fell the Timbers, which is in a North East & direction from ^{* f . E +} one ghaut to that I am well assured its one of the same Forest from Katanu ghaut to Tavrah Mysapora opposite Bogga, and called the Mysapora Forest, and I conclude it must be at least 52 English miles in length and say 16 miles in breadth. These excursions I made in the months of 6 Nov and Decr. With respect to Mysapora the only information I can give you about it, is as follows It is formerly a very large town belonging to the Royal Rajah who was Tributary to the Nijpaul Rajah, and also to the Nabal of Cudd and when that Prince used the Forests country to the British Government +4i the low land. It is situated in the north and Government, its

on a straight line from Terbyne ghant 6 miles in land from the south side of the Grand or as the natives call it the Naryne River, from Scolone there is a very good road up to a large mountain, where the great Mandarins had a Mahomedan Sultan died, to whose memory there is a most sumptuous Tomb erected and is visited by many thousand of the people. In the middle of April in my Camp that there was a large body of Nipaul troops arrived at the Durum ghant in my camp from the block Merchants and when they had done there that they intended to pay me a visit at Terbyne ghant, this report alarmed my people, and it was with much difficulty I could get them to go into the forest to bring out the lumber. nor would they go unless I went and found it all a y[^]ble indeed this shamefull report went to the Rolsara Rajah who I understand gave in a Complaint to the then acting Judge at Choppok who sent me Chanderson with a purnannah to the Durrugob Dur-rojak to go and make enquiries into the business which the Durrugob did and paid me a visit on his return from Burumchaurak and from from what he told me that there had not been a single Rupee collected, nor had there been a Kachan man there, this I think was about the 24th of April and I remained at Torbenee ghaut until the 9th of May following and never heard any thing of the Kachan people after -

Then follows the names of the ghats that I visited from my house at Shoppa Kumbon, 8 miles from Shoppa, Rawak ghaut, 30 miles from Kumbon, Durmanan ghaut, 6 miles from Rawak ghaut, Torbenee ghaut 2 miles from Durmanan ghaut, Burumchaurak 6 miles from Torbenee ghaut, Kachana Mahul 6 miles from Burumchaurak, and Gollasonah ghat 5 miles from Kachana Mahul.

Sooport is on the south side of the Torbenee river, and in the Sololee Country.

This is all the information I can give you on the subject

My Dear Sir,

I believe this is one of Dr. Reubens's specimens specimens of Bambusa. I will compare the specimen with his description when I visit the Garden next week (I leave Singapore to go on Thursday.) I will keep my notes on it ready in describing the species.

The notes on the birds of a different sort of Bambusa specimens?

you and to hear that you were all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you all the same.
I am writing to you as I have not time to write longer.

My Dear Sir

I have received your kind note & am sorry to see that you are in the necessity of leaving Madras so soon. It would have afforded me a great delight by seeing your Collection of Plants, and I would have passed them with every attention. Should it not please you to direct that we see each other again, I hope to hear of your safe arrival in Bengal, and I shall always be happy if I can be to you of any assistance.

I wish very dearly, I could communicate any good tidings about your own concerns. Had a long commu-

no vacancies in the Medical Department.

Benares. Friday 10. Sept. 1813

My dear Sir,

I received your letter duly and answered them long before, but for the great pleasure which such leaves me no doubt that I have the pleasure to tell you that Mr George Smith has taken your appointment entirely upon himself and that you will have received it immediately, but that he was out of the direction that year of the list of Surgeons being so full, and that he should take the very first opportunity of putting in your name. He is not a man of promises, but a warm & true-hearted man, and I had hoped to have sent you notice of your appointment before you returned, but have not heard again since. The words are having been out of the direction during the 4 Sfa+f year, I am sorry to say it is not in my power to comply with your request by giv-

I was con to S^r Watick, I understand the list of medical men is so full, that no appointments are made this year, but I trust there is no doubt of my being able to do it by the beginning of next year. (1711)

My dear Sir

In a letter from Mr. Adam dated the 17th inst. it is stated "that Mr. G. Kennedy should be nominated to perform the Medical duties of Surgeon, and that the necessary orders for his appointment to that Station will be issued from the proper department." The Military Department is the one to which Mr. Adam here alludes and no further reference will be made to the Medical Board on the subject: I am not surprised at the delay, because it happens almost constantly in the public Offices, but there can be little doubt that Mr. Kennedy will receive his orders in the course of a few days.

London to the Asiatic Society

Dear Sir

At the last meeting of the Society some observations were made by you and several other gentlemen on the propriety of ~~proposing~~ ^{the} establishment of a Museum in London's apartments, comprising some portion of the old and new buildings.

I have been on the subject of collecting specimens of the natural history of Asia. I have had opportunity to form a kind of estimate of the objects which might be acquired and the circumstances which facilitate such an undertaking. I trust that I shall meet with the concurrence of the Society in ~~the~~ ^{the} request that I should be allowed to prepare a report on the subject. I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant.

The next request that was proposed within the limits of London is that a committee should be appointed to judge on the expediency of the use of the old and new buildings of the Society for the purpose of forming a museum. I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant.

The idea of getting up the annual book and annual was unanimously and comparatively easy - but in many the parts of the State. A number of gentlemen who have been in the business of ^{the State} ~~the State~~ would ~~find~~ be very warranted to say, to be happy to see the business of our country ~~to be~~ ^{to be} the business of the Society, and specimens could be deposited and preserved and then they would advise of it more ~~to be~~ ^{to be} ~~to be~~ ^{to be} being and are only to embrace the filling up of an apartment, the purchase of the necessary apparatus ~~for the purpose~~, such as Paper, Spirit of Wine &c and lastly the wages of a few native assistants.

Many promises have been made, but has been no promise to propose that the ^{British} Museum

I received with a cordial welcome your letter yesterday and felt an equal regret after perusing its contents, should the origin of your misfortune arise from that source. Trust and hope his illiberality will meet with have you express the same thing I think the pleasure it would give me who from an affectionate aid them, far beyond any other consideration.

On introducing myself

My dear Wallace

I do not ever remember to have felt the force of solitude but twice in my life, once at Dover in England & yesterday evening at Sam Sam - Had I changed into a pleasant quarter & met ever pleasant society - till it's cheap from a house like

H^X* were felt tL*U< - But what do you think f absolute solitude in the midst of a grassy swamp with a jingle in my ears?

Yesterday a bad storm was made intolerable by the incessant rain; & in the fl I my D. Brown came to see me & to give me some cautions against theories which descriptions of people are in this place narrow subtle heavy & desperate -

% right was short in helpless agitation interested by the certainty that I cannot superintend any thing (where I am) must leave a paper - The plan is knocked aside -

Dr Brown tells me there is a L+*J£Z order that no officer goes to town without leave of absence & this they will not give me - how indeed could I ask it were they so inclined - The General is the only man & this is the l^J^e LZe^U . JLs£ i4- my junior -most - Since I came hither I became acquainted with what I before surmised Major M - I was the very worst advocate I could have & he went about it .^S in the very worst way -

Give my best regards to that agreeable & friendly gentleman Mr McCulloch - He A-~*4 <.^*i exceedingly kind to me & you here I have a heart capable of estimating it It seems as though I knew him for years.
Talking of kindred characters - of the ~~town~~

My sencer had 4 parcels of your superfine tea in a cloth - why did you think of such a thing? - Had it not looked like stiffs I should have left your good things behind me - But had I known it before you went out, I should have made a retraction in your kindly at my rate -

To add to my griefs here (for we will be talking of grievances) my shoes ran off last night - It dont seem that he carried any thing away - my barouchee did not come as he had agreed - so in the acti--ing way I cannot be well-off; but being & thinking me to be of not great consequence think that Greenway that he cannot ex-completely embarrassed on this side & that I am, my dear friend, with affectionate regards yours and ever

My dear Walter

I am not much amazed at your being sent away from Calcutta - But will allow a line brought it on yourself by soliciting the Empire's employment & subjecting yourself to a joke like this - Do not be the dupe of any official sympathy. I can easily see they are only (if you were ignorantly) putting every thing in their hands to get rid of us all - in order to keep the fields open for themselves - you have made yourself known here - they know you are formidable - a certain extent as a c-U any further use of any more - by me a while 4U^t x together -

You ask my advice in a difficult matter. I believe it is not unknown to you - Had I got on so far, & so well as you have done I would trust the rest to him who has power in all things & give up the service - how later to de father - you know the truth Debia & incerta res vita nostra omnium est - Trust a little to future; ask Mr Cantor's advice & that of your ^{other} friends - Recollect you must not ^{of the money} run much - If I can get settled in town, so as to be enabled to make a stand or a struggle be assured you shall not whether in sickness or in health stand in need of a friend or (if you please) a Physician - I will take some a little respite for the settling of your affairs - petitions & do every thing & get mark do not appear to be doing any thing - Keep your plans a secret from Leary & from the President here (He will help the tail!) of the medical men - But be strenuous in holding fast to town - by all means -

My little horse is without shoes or I should have gone to town today even at the expense of asking leave which nothing but a call from a friend could induce me to do - In a day or two I hope to see you & speak to you here at large - upon this subject -

It is but an hour's drive better why not come out of an evening? you can be off in the morning as early as you like -

I am by dear William

Dear Sirs -

Along with this you will find a public reply to your letter of the 11th Inst. in which I am sorry it is not in my power to specify any given price to which you might extend your residence in Calcutta for the purpose of arranging your affairs before joining the station, as that is a step beyond the authority vested in the Judge and Magistrate. Should circumstances there fore require any prolongation of your stay in Calcutta, it will be necessary you should apply to Govt. before you be absent from your station. My Dear Sir

I am really concerned to find the subscription to our meeting on Sunday was very so unpleasant from your side. What can be said or what to do in such cases. What we are all too liable to. I understand you have, subscribers to our state or the common place, which is provided by all the committee, many of the people, for it is however, a great work, which is to submit to the hands of the only one who is permitted to submit man, simply with my signature to the right work of the "Surrender of the S. W. Hall"

I will not let Volume I that I have as I imagine they expect

Feb 12 9 AM

In reply to your note of yesterday I am very sorry to acquaint you that it is not in my power to be there this evening, as I happen to be engaged there elsewhere at three different places, so that I cannot attend the London Meeting this evening. It is a very late notice, but I cannot be sure of any meetings with a paid day cannot be substituted in the present case I have these engagements, and I cannot avoid my Maritime Meeting & Proception; a previous engagement to dinner at one of the Judges; & the Ladies of St. Andrew's & St. George's; introduction of the British Society I would have

I am more sorry for not being present to night as it obliges me to be absent from you after having asked you that it was for another day (Wednesday, you would recollect). I have had made a promise of introducing Dr. Henderson of Penang as a visitor at the Society. I remain your
