Gieseemann. Date 2 Decr.

Memoir in one of the volumes of the Memoires of the Royal Danish Academy of Sciences (I think the very same, in which is contained Schumacher's account of Thouring, and Smith's Guinea plants, though (being I am not positive) with the signed a Memoir of Mr von Schmidt Phiseldski, on the inexpediency & danger of admitting people of the Jewish persuasion to the rights of Danish Citizens &c. Now this Mr Schmidt Phiseldski, was a german and a foreigner; I mistake not, a counsellor of the Bishop of Zealand, St Mierter, and consequently of Conference Rath Bruun of Copenhagen, whose political and Theologic talents, had, was born of the said Mierter family; but all other Germans and no mistake. Have a mind to translate the above Memoir to the benefit of the readers of the R. Daub. T. P. Macbeth essay on the eligibility of the Jews to all the rights of an Englishman without exception and the injustice of withholding these rights from them.

 The contrast ^{is} would prove very edifying. The same Mr von S. Ph. was one of the members of the Danish Royal Board of Economy & Commerce; his autograph may be seen in letters N^o 17 and 19 in this collection. Since I have conversed with myself among the candidates for public examinations at the R. Academy of Surgeons at Copenhagen, was a countryman of the said person with the name of Rudolphi (or Rudolph, I do not remember which) by profession a barber, the result of whose examinations was only not ^{being} absolutely rejected for ^{being} ~~being~~ as it is called). There are three grades or degrees granted by the Academy - the first, or highest which they gave me, the next or second entitled a man to only certain secondary posts - and the third, or least, - is, as I have said, nothing nothing but what ^{will} ~~should~~ enable a man to keep a barber's shop, or scamp, to shew people. Notwithstanding this, Mr von Schornedt Thielbeck was very near frustrating my application for the Serampore Surgeonship - in favour of his Postagee, the said Mr Rudolphi (or Rudolph) - such was the disgraceful influence which all that was German had in those days in Denmark: I speak deliberately, Nam I use the word disgraceful, because the Diploma I held from the R. Acad. of Surgeons at Copenhagen, gave me the preference, under any circumstances, over the Barber, most especially on an occasion of so small a post being the object - and my sole motive being Rotary! However - was nominated; and the official letter from the Board announcing it, has not Mr von Schornedt Thielbeck's autograph among the other signatures. - It was to remove even the shadow of a plea, for the outrageous procedure I have alluded to, that I ~~upplied~~ petitioned the King of Denmark - (see No 7, 9 & 10)

- 11 Board of Economy and Commerce of Denmark situation of their Factory at Serampore.

Copy of letter to the Directors of the Royal Botanic Garden at Copenhagen, dated N. Lying-in Hospital No. 11 Noor-1806 bearing forth that my attachment, alone, to the study of Natural History, had induced me to seek the post at Laxenburg in Bengal, but that I had pursued these studies since the year 1797 under such men as E. Woborg, Mr. Vahl, P. Schumacher, J. W. Hornemann, Schouboe / author of an excellent Memoir on the plants about Mexico, where he held the post of Danish Consul / and Holboll, Surgeon at the Royal Bot. Garden, where I had assisted as well as in the library belonging thereto, as attested in the accompanying testimonials / (see some as under No. 8) upon these grounds I wished that the Board will move the Directors of the Institution, called the "Funds ad usus publicos," to grant me some pecuniary aid, to enable me to be of use to my native country in matters of Natural History.

- 115 Letter from the Directors of the above ^{Funds} ~~Board~~ and C. Reventlow / dated 6 December 1806 granting me 200 Rigsdalers on condition of my transmitting home seeds, plants and dried specimens to the Royal Botanic Garden, and skeletons of certain East Indian animals, as also observations respecting domestic animals in these countries for the use of the Royal School of the Veterinary art Soliciting, further, that they procure the medicines from Mr. Boye's Dispensary. / Mr. B. was a fellow pupil of mine under the immortal Vahl, he was an excellent and clever man, and would have supplied cheaper articles than the Royal Dispensary. Date 25 Novemb. 1806. —

Copy of a letter to the Board of Economy & Finance informing them that a cabin having a port-hole had been pointed out to me two months ago, by the Officers in duty aboard the "Prince of Augustenburgh". That I have since had the cabin repaired & the cabin and fitted it out in the usual manner. No objection or caution had been given, or offered to me until now when I am ^{informed} that I must make into a much smaller, miserable cabin, without any port-hole as my cabin was to be occupied by Mr John Brown also a passenger for Bengal. Date 27 March 1807. This intended outrage was put a stop to and I retained possession. Mr Brown, had been a planter in the West Indies and was at the time engaged with an uncle in Bengal, an indigo planter. Mr Brown became another year since continued a much valued friend of mine. After at length realizing a princely fortune, an which he retired to Denmark, he was almost ruined by the failure of his Agents in Bengal; in 1833 or 1834. Miss Ferguson Esq.

123 Memorandum of Post Ludvig Levin Jacobson respecting his instrument for piercing the drum of a tympanic of which he had made me a present; dated Copenhagen 29 March 1807.

Post Jacobson was a most dear cousin of mine. As a surgeon and above all as an Anatomist he was second to none in Denmark and far superior to most. He was a corresponding member of the French Institute, Member of the Royal Socy of Sciences at Copenhagen, Knight of of the Acad. order of Beurebroge and had also its silver cross; he was Knight of the Polar Star and Commander of the order of Vasa. The illustrious Linnæus was his friend and patron, - he was respected abroad and at home, not only for his anatomical researches and discoveries, published and reported upon in various publications, but for his excellent and highly honorable private character. In 1833 he was honored with the French Academy with the Montyon gold medal of 9000 francs worth.

He was born in 1752 1783 and died on the 29 Aug 1843. His father and my mother were brother and sister.

124 Letter from the same dated at Tronquebar 8th April 1807

125 The same from the late ~~Adolph~~ Adolph, William Rukde, Quirinus Leipzig at Tronquebar, the 16th Octob 1807. Dr R. was among several Anatomists, and an excellent surgeon.
As an Officer of the R. Academy of Surgeons at Magdeburg he was prosecutor to prof. Hesselow; and I have never seen any thing equal to his skill in that branch.
He was much my senior and died at Tronquebar in 126 Letter in German from the Rev^d Dr. C. ^{the venerable} Johnson, head of the Mission at Tronquebar, where it is dated the 17 October 1807, and there I was at the time, he wrote me what I proceeded, having been there for about a week. It contained what I wrote to Dr. Rooker. He was a good botanist and the genus Johnia was dedicated to him by Dr. Rooker.

Day appointing me third Surgeon - rather surgeon to his Factory.
 Date Serampore 19 November 1807, the day after my arrival there, having left the roads at Copenhagen on the 8th April of the same year. The passage had been very long, first because we had to go to the north of the Shetland Islands, to save the expense of pilotage through the British Channel. No joke this at that time of the year; and we had accordingly, after encountering a severe storm with contrary winds, to run into a port in Norway, called Stavern or Stavanger, for 12 or 14 hours only however. Secondly we touched at Rhis Janico, to my great delight, and remained there 8 or 10 days. The only plant which I introduced hence into the Calcutta Garden was Bacillaria auriculata Raab (see Catalogue of the Garden ^{edited} by J. Gray) which is proper ~~name~~ ^{name} Ad. Dupuisii Sigmocephalum.

The Governor General in Council had authorized him to release me from the obligation of my parole. Date Chinsura 23 Febry 1808. Amongst other obligations of the Parole, was that of not going beyond one mile from Serampore, which I found to be very hard upon me as a medical man.

132 Letter from ^{Colonel} Jacob Kresting / late Governor or Chief of Serampore / informing me that, according to a communication of the 14th day, 14 March 1808, from the English Commissioners, my Subsistence Money had been fixed at Sixty Sicca Rupees a month.

133 Note from Casper Top of 7 July 1808. He was the Chief Agent to the Danish E. I. Company at Serampore. A most worthy and universally respected old man, and my dear patron and friend to the time of his death, which took place while I was absent on account of my health at the Mauritius in 1812. He was a very old Court friend of Dr Rookburgh, ^{who} ~~the latter~~ ^{was} at Samulcotha used to execute contracts for Longclothes and other Indian fabrics for the Danish Company.

134-41 Notes from my ever most honored friend and predecessor Dr William Rookburgh, of 8 Octob 1808, of .. July 1809 three others of 1809 - one of 27 July ~~1809~~ 1812 with a letter of introduction for the Mauritius, which I was on the eve of proceeding on account of an attack of dysentery. - Had brought with a letter of introduction to Dr Rookburgh from prof Hornemann. Vahl had died before I left Serampore. Three days after my arrival at Serampore my dear friend Dr William Carey had taken me down to the Botanic Garden where I was received in the kindest manner, as was the case indeed being frequently afterwards, in my writing the highly distinguished botanist. In 1809, during the hot 158 Note from the Rev David Brown, concerning my appointment to the Medical Service of the North East I.S. Company.

No date but probably of 1810

The Rev. Mr Brown was Senior Chaplain to the Old Church of Malacca and patron of one of the Company's Serivants. He was an eminent orientel scholar, the intimate friend of Martin Lacey and Th. Thomas. At one time he was Secretary Treasurer of the College of St. William, and continued long afterwards to be one of its Examiners. Residing with his large family close to Serampore, at a place called Alder, on the lower side, and near the road leading ^{to the} ~~from the~~ settlement to Schoora where the Dutch Company's ships after they were unloaded were usually laid up for a time (at a distance from Serampore of several more than a mile) was very soon called upon to attend as a Medical Man. I was always treated by that most excellent Man with distinguished kindness and attention. His eldest daughter by a former wife was married to Mr Robert Reveries Bird, a civil servant of the Company of the most distinguished merit as an Oriental Scholar, and who rose to accept ^{one of} the highest posts in Bengal. It is to these two honored friends and patrons that I owe my appointment into the service, which I received in 18 ~~at the~~ hands of Mr Geo. Smith (of Foydun in Kent) one of the E.I. Directors. Mr D. Brown's second wife

The letter is from the Rev. Mr. Brown to the Hon. Mr. Pitt, dated 18th Oct. 1810. It contains a notice of the appointment of the writer to the medical service of the North East India Company, and is signed by the Rev. Mr. Brown. The letter is written in a very elegant hand, and is a very interesting document. It is now in the possession of the Hon. Mr. Pitt, and is a valuable addition to his collection of letters.

Civilian in the E.I. Company's Service from 1807 to 1842. An early friend and personal friend. He was married to the daughter of the Rev. Dr. Brown (by his first wife) and lived with that family at Alden near Beaupre, during my first years in India (vide supra 1810). To him and his wife I am indebted to the late kind and good George Smith, Esq of Frogden in Kent, for my appointment to the Company's Service. The latter was a Director.

Robert Long Esq. Surgeon in the Bengal Establishment to the Medical Board, and afterwards holder also of other appointments.

An exceedingly clever man, who is said to have drafted some of the best despatches of the late Lord Lake, an elegant staff (think) he was. —

But Long sees the greatest misery in India in his time! He died worth £100,000 — and had not a drop of wine or brandy in his house, nor a sheet or dry lining with an being taken out of a warm bath — except one marked "Melrose Hospital" to which, among other posts, he held that of superintending. He died in 1816 of the cholera — one of the first victims of the disease as it became epidemic — and months after my attack. —

Fred. Colbyn. Spent Surgeon of the same season as myself, now Sp. Surgeon. A curious circumstance happened in Decr. 1844. I was at the time settled on the Esplanade Row in Calcutta.
Mr Colbyn and Dr. Thomas Carey were my guests, both having recently arrived as Sp. Surgeons.
When the death of Sp. Surg. J. the season was announced in general orders my home (entirely unknown to my ^{two} friends) was between home and eye distant from them, as is seen in the Encl. to be mentioned on the preceding page. - Out of the 11 names only three are now (1848) alive.

Thomas Carey, M.D. of Dublin Sp. Surg. see above.
A most extraordinary clever man and I should say the very best Latin scholar that ever came to India. He had been tutor in the family of Lady (Lester) I remember rightly of the then Governor General, The Marquis of Hastings, who very much patronized him. His eye was much beyond that of Sp. Surg. Surgeons generally. Warm hearted and generous in a very great degree, he was not of a happy temper. It had been saved by a very

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the smell of fresh air. It was a relief after being stuck in traffic for hours.
 I took a deep breath and felt a sense of freedom. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing.
 It was a beautiful day, and I was finally home.
